Dedicated to love of God, pursuit of truth, service to mankind

CENTENNIAL HYMN

Words and Music by LORIN F. WHEELWRIGHT

Majestically

1. One hun - dred years, a mo - ment's time In thy e - ter - nal day,
2. O, B - Y - U press on, press on, In thy pro - phet - ic role;
3. O, help us gain e - ter - nal truth, And pow'r to serve man - kind;
4. With ex - cel - lence we glo - ri - fy Our loy - al - ty to thee;

Yet, like a pro - logue of the stars They shine to light our way; ___ Yet,
O, lift our eyes to see the light Of thy e - ter - nal goal; ___ O,
O, help us give to Christ, our Lord, Our strength, our might, our mind; ___ O,
We pray, O God, to know Thy will, To build what ought to be; ___ We like a pro-logue of the stars, They shine to light our way.

lift our eyes to see the light Of thy e - ter - nal goal.
help us give to Christ, our Lord, Our strength, our might, our mind.
pray, O God, to know Thy will, To build what ought to be!

Copyright 1975 by Brigham Young University