

Mount Meadows.

Dr. W. Tullis, who was part of Hamlin party up from Canada to Meadows in 1857 (he has no house in Meadow till then) says the in 1857 when car of stock for Hamlin. After Hamlin built Cabin (Camp) and other cedar shanties to live (Tullis health forced him to the house - 1857 probably). Remembers Benj.
 Arthur and Elliott Wilson among others not memory or note from Cedar, telling of other emigrants. This was before company arrived. Soon after the men of company band came along inquiry after the Indians, shown to south end of Valley, away from settlers stock; company went into camp on Saturday in Meadows. On Sunday night Indians camped about 3 miles down into biggy potlatch valley. Richard G.
 Rebenkemper, Benj. Knobell. Indians never came through outfit; the pottery pots and a fork of Spain; from whom Indians went across hill to Meadow. Emigrants passed through first on Beartooth road, followed by Mrs.
 G. Thornton and the others visited them camp in Meadows. Lee hill camped not far from a dozen men near Hamlin's house.
 The day of massacre. After company left Mr. Parker went out with them guns.

David W. Tullis

Mount. Meadows.
D W Tullis, worked for Jacob Hamblin putting up house and corall in Meadows in 1857 (He had no house in Meadows till then) was the[re] in 1857, taking care of stock for Hamblin. After house was built, Sam Knight and others do[wn] there to live (Tullis hauled the first lumber for the house—1857 positively). Remembers Benj. Arthur and Elliott Wilden and Reaves with message or note from Cedar, telling of their sauciness. This was before company arrived. Soon after two men of emigrant train came along inquiring after feed etc, shown to south end of Meadows, away from settlers stock; company went into camp on Saturday in Meadows. On Sunday night Indians camped about 3 miles above Pinto, digging potatoes, belonging to Richard S Robinson and Benj. Knell; Indians never came through Pinto; the patch of potatoes at forks of Canyon; from there Indians went across hill to Meadows (Emigrants passed through Pinto on Cedar City road.) Afterwards Amos G Thornton and two others visited the emigrant in Meadows. Lee held council with about a dozen men near Hamblin's house <on the> day of massacre. [blank] <on>¹ After council John M. Higbee ordered all men out with their guns.

1. Insertion may have belonged with erased text.